Okagesama

literally means, "Because I live within the great shade of many people, I am fine."

Founded in 1899, the Buddhist Church of Sacramento has grown over the years through the support and hard work of generations of people that came before. The Temple has provided religious services, educational and cultural programs, Japanese language school, youth and adult activities, sports and scouting programs, and the annual food and cultural bazaar. It has become the spiritual heart of the community, sharing the Dharma in a spirit of gratitude, understanding and caring.

Make a Difference by Giving

The Legacy Endowment Fund is a long-term investment in which the principal balance remains untouched and only the interest and dividends generated are used. Donations to the fund are managed by financial professionals guided by the investment policies of the board.

Donations may include:

- Cash
- Real Estate, Personal Property
- Life Insurance, Annuities
- Stocks, Bonds, Mutual Funds
- Vehicles

Benefits of Giving

By supporting this fund, you are making sure that there will always be resources available to continue to teach and share the Dharma.

The fund supports educational events and activities for members, ministerial candidates, and the community. Scholarships for students and leaders to attend conferences and retreats offer opportunities to develop and continue with their leadership roles.
