2023 COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

This year the Sacramento Buddhist Church Adult Buddhist Association (ABA) will offer Community Service Scholarship Awards to deserving graduating high school students, college, university, vocational, or technical students. These Awards are funded by the ABA Scholarship Education Fund.

Graduating high school students and students attending an accredited college, university, vocational or technical school in 2022-2023 may apply for the Community Service Scholarship Award. The student must be a family member of the Sacramento Buddhist Church, ABA, Affiliated or Sponsored Organization of the Church.

The Scholarship Award is based on a competitive process that includes an application, essay, letters of Recommendation, and interview. The Awards are intended to recognize in addition to academic achievement, Community Service to others.

The evaluation criteria will include:

- Essay (limited to 750 words or 1½ pages) describing your Community Service and the development, planning and execution of Community Service projects; and/or taking a leadership role in Community Service activities.
- Scholastic achievement
- Two Letters of Recommendation
- Oral interview

An ABA Scholarship Committee will evaluate the qualifications of each applicant and will select Award Recipients. The Awards will be made at the end of the current school year.

Application deadline: Applications must be received by April 30, 2023 by the Sacramento Adult Buddhist Association, 2401 Riverside Blvd., Sacramento, CA, 95818.

Questions can be directed to Curtis Ishii at (916) 393-9454 or Carolyn Murata at (916) 939-0667.
