

Cultural Arts Exhibitions
Throughout the Weekend

Shuji, Calligraphy, Main Chapel Back Room

Students of the Nihon Shuji Kyoiku Renmei led by Instructor Harumi Hashimoto, display their artwork, demonstrate and share their knowledge of the ancient art of Japanese calligraphy.

Mataro Kimekomi, Handmade Dolls,
Main Chapel, Back Room

Students of Masanori Isako Wasano Sensei display handmade Japanese dolls dressed in silk and brocade kimono. The doll is made of wood material that come to life as beautiful Japanese fabrics are applied to make dolls representing the Heian Period (794-119), Japan. Masanori Sensei has risen to become one of the top 10 instructors in both Japan and the U.S.

Ikebana, Japanese Flower Arrangement,
Kaikan/Indoor Eating Area

Students of Kosoku (Helen) Tashima, arrange flowers in the Sogetsu style. This style of flower arranging reflects modern, contemporary life with emphasis on individual expressions using natural and man-made materials.

THE SACRAMENTO BUDDHIST CHURCH PRESENTS

BAZAAR

72ND ANNUAL JAPANESE FOOD AND CULTURAL FESTIVAL
2401 RIVERSIDE BLVD, SACRAMENTO | 11:00AM - 8:00PM

Outdoor Cultural Programs – Main Stage

Saturday, August 11, 2018

11:00 a.m.
Sakura Minyo Do Ko Kai, Sacramento Japanese Folk Dancing

Members perform both Japanese folk and modern music and dances. They wear traditional Japanese summer yukata. Dancers range in age from 13 to 85.

1:00 p.m.
Koyasan Spirit of Children Taiko

Enjoy the musical rhythms of thundering drums and see colorful, traditional Japanese dress as children of all ages perform. The taiko group was formed in 1993 to teach children the ancient art of taiko and continue the tradition of Japanese culture.

4:30 – 6:30 p.m.
East Wind Band

If you like Old School tunes, funk, soul and classic rock, you will love this concert by East Wind. Get up and dance as they sing the summer night away. East Wind Band has performed with The Dramatics, Bloodstone, Hiroshima and other chart-topping headliners.

Sunday, August 12, 2018

11:00 a.m.
Na Aikane Ukulele Group

Enjoy Hawaiian-style entertainment featuring hula dancing, and ukulele tunes. Songs are both Hawaiian and modern hits sung by the Buddhist Church of Sacramento Adult Buddhist Association.

1:00 p.m.
Sakura Minyo Do Ko Kai, Sacramento Japanese Folk Dancing

Members perform both Japanese folk and modern music and dances. They wear beautiful traditional Japanese summer yukata. Dancers range in age from 13 to 85.

3:00 p.m.
Sacramento Taiko Dan

You will feel the beat of the drums deep in your heart and soul when the taiko group plays their rhythmic musical delights on traditional Japanese musical instruments. The group was founded in 1989 and performs nationally and internationally.

5:00 p.m.
Auntie Amy's Hula Dancers from Hula Halau 'O Ka 'Ano'i Pua

Enjoy Hawaiian-style entertainment featuring hula dancing. The group's goal is to teach and promote the island culture.

.....

Indoor Cultural Program – Main Chapel

Saturday, August 11, 2018

Noon
Hokka Minyo Tanoshimi Kai, Lodi Japanese Folk Dance and Music

Members sing traditional folk songs and perform folk dances depicting daily life in Japan. The performers wear summer yukata and play traditional Japanese instruments.

2 p.m.
Koto Concert Japanese Harp

Master Teacher, Shirley Kazuyo Muramoto performs Japanese music on a large, stringed instrument known as a koto, or Japanese harp. She and her ensemble will perform tunes from traditional Japanese music to contemporary jazz.

4 p.m.
Introduction to Jodo Shinshu Buddhism

The indoor cultural program closes with a lecture about Jodo Shinshu Buddhism. The Buddhist altar and artifacts are also discussed.

Sunday, August 12, 2018

Noon
Bando Juniro School of Japanese Classical Dance, Stockton

Members perform Japanese classical dances. The Bando lineage has a long history with the Grand Kabuki of Tokyo, Japan.

2 p.m.
Classical Okinawan Dance Academy, Alameda

The group will perform classical Okinawan dances, sing and play folk songs with musical instruments and will wear traditional Okinawan attire.

4 p.m.
Introduction to the Buddhism

The indoor cultural program closes with a lecture about Jodo Shinshu Buddhism. The Buddhist altar and artifacts are also discussed.