MEMORIAL DAY AND VESAK BODHI DAY

Welcome to the month of May. As I reflect on my experiences from a year ago here in Sacramento, I remember May as being the first month when temperatures start to feel consistently warm, and the last month before I begin to feel like I'm melting from the heat of the sun in June. May is very comfortable to me.

I also remember that this is a hectic time of year for students attending school, which means that their families are also running around... helping their children prepare for final projects, final exams and graduation activities.

Although many of you may feel overwhelmed by the frantic pace of the end-of-school-year activities, we are fortunate to have five Sundays this month to relax, catch our breath, and reflect on the people who have helped create the lives that we live today.

On May 1, we will not have a Family Dharma Service since many Dharma School teachers will be attending the Teachers' Conference in Fresno. On May 8, we will have our annual Parents' Day Service where we will have the opportunity to reflect on the patience and sacrifices of our parents and guardians. May 15 is our annual Gotan-E Service. During this special service, we are fortunate to have as our guest speaker, Reverend Harry Bridge from the Oakland Buddhist Church, as we commemorate the birthday of Shinran Shonin, the founder of Jodo Shinshu Buddhism. May 22 and 29 are regular Family Dharma School Services, and throughout the Memorial Day weekend, we will be able to welcome the beginning of summer with a variety of Memorial Day traditions, such as barbecues, family gatherings and Memorial Day services at cemeteries and in our Betsuin Nokotsudo.

During the Memorial Day weekend, I would also like to invite you to participate in a once-in-a-lifetime event that is being sponsored by the Buddhist Church of Sacramento, along with other Buddhist organizations in our community. The Vesak-Bodhi Day event is recognized by the United Nations, commemorating the 2600th year anniversary of Buddhism (see Reverend Patti's newsletter article). The Sacramento Vesak-Bodhi Day event will be held at the Kim Quang Temple, located at 3119 Alta Arden Expressway, and parking will be available across the street in the Kaiser parking lot.

This inaugural event will begin with a candlelight service at 7 p.m. on Saturday, May 28, and there will be a variety of activities on Sunday, May 29, from 8 a.m.–6 p.m. Check the website www.buddhadaysacramento.org for more details.

This is the first event involving a diverse group of Sacramento Buddhist organizations, and is a result of the vision and guidance of the Venerable Bhante Seelawimala. If you would like to volunteer to help at the event, please contact me or Reverend Patti Oshita.

Metta (Loving Kindness),
Reverend Peter

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE KELVIN C. MARK, D.O.

Wow! May is here and with it comes Gotan-E, our chance to acknowledge and celebrate the birth of our teacher and founder, Shinran Shonin. You may remember that Shinran discovered the path that enabled the dharma to be accessible to all people without discrimination.

Having recently had the honor of helping out with our earthquake-tsunami relief effort has pointed out that one is never too old to learn new things or to embrace new terms and phrases. Several in our sangha have introduced me to the terms Gokurosama — “good work, thanks for doing something that inconveniences you” and Ganbare — “hang in there.” As for learning, our volunteers have been treated to a crash course on the intricacies of international trade policy, the unintended consequences of market protectionism, and the impediments of bureaucracy.

Over 200 local relief volunteers gave whatever time, effort and support they could in order to prepare clothing, package food, and accept monetary support from people from all over Northern California. Supporters representing all walks of life braved wind, rain and cold to contribute. Some, who themselves appeared to be struggling, with clothing tattered and missing teeth, generously gave relief supplies and monetary support to aid the people of northern Japan; at least two even offered the coats off of their backs. It is mind blowing that a disaster around the world manages to unify a spirit of universal brotherhood and demonstrate a sense of freedom from selfishness.

During this month past, 16,000 pounds of donated clothing was blocked from export, then fortunately purchased by a local non-profit agency, and instead turned into the equivalent of 15,000 pounds of rice. 3,923 pounds of non-perishable food and personal supplies has remarkably taken over a month to ship. However, the efforts of our Betsuin have helped to alleviate suffering and provide a measure of comfort to the people of the Tohoku region.

Our community pulled together to demonstrate the six paramita, most notably dana — giving unselfishly to others, virya — doing our best in all things, and ksanti — being patient and understanding. Is this the dharma in action or what?

To be sure, the people of northern Japan face huge challenges. It may be decades or lifetimes before people can safely return, if ever, to the place that once they called home. Thanks to your efforts and the strength of the human spirit, if ever there was a country that could recover and rebuild, it would be Japan. Ganbare!

The April 2011 meeting of the BWA was held on Wednesday, April 6, with President Lynn Kurahara presiding.

THANK YOU

Thank you, BWA ladies, their husbands, their families and friends for coming out to help fold the clothes we received for the Japan earthquake and tsunami effort. Because of the "red tape" and the customs duties and taxes involved in receiving our boxes and boxes of clothing and the cost of sending the boxes, a decision was made not to ship the boxes. Please see Board President Kelvin Mark's SANGHA article for more details.

Thank you, BWA ladies, for your generous osaisen donation at the Eshinniko Service in February. The $323 osaisen collected was donated to the Dharma School.

UPCOMING EVENTS/ACTIVITIES BETSUIN SCHOLARSHIPS

Utako Kimura reported that there were 16 graduating seniors interviewed in January and the awards will be presented at the Dharma School picnic on Sunday, June 12. The BWA will contribute $1,000 toward the Betsuin's Scholarship Fund. Marcia Matsuda is currently serving as the Betsuin's representative on the Ronald McDonald House (RHMC) Charities Scholarship Program and will be reviewing the applications on April 23. The RMHC Scholarship Awards Event will be held on Saturday, June 11 from 10 a.m. to noon at the State Capitol. All scholarship recipients and their family members will be invited to this event. On Sunday, June 12, Marcia will represent the Betsuin at the Dharma School picnic, where the Betsuin Scholarship Awards will be presented.

BAZAAR CRAFT BOOTH

Thank you to Kathy Henry and Sue Louie for leading the April craft session. A special thank you to Sally Hamatake for sewing most of the aprons that will be sold at the Bazaar; Amy Dote for the wonderful quilts she makes each year; Aileen Okimoto for the many bags full of creative crafts she made and donated; Sandy Nishimura Yee, Jane Nakagawa and Virginia Uchida for their hard work in knitting the tote bags; and Bridget Morisaki for leading the March craft get-together. Craft Chair Shirley Kato reminds everyone that there will be NO CRAFT SESSION in May. The next sessions will be on June 17 (leader will be Jane Komure), and July 15 from 1 to 3 pm in Classroom 1 unless the classroom is needed for an otoki. In those instances, the sessions will be held in a classroom in the Annex.

MAY 29, 2011 - "BUDDHA DAY" EVENT

Reverend Peter Inokoji-Kim and Reverend Patti Oshita are meeting monthly with other Buddhist groups to plan a joint Buddha Day event on Sunday, May 29, at the Temple on Alta Arden. Reverend Peter Inokoji-Kim will be speaking at this service.

MUSIC CIRCUS ON AUGUST 4

President Kurahara reported that Virginia Uchida is working on the Music Circus outing scheduled for August 4 for the 2 p.m. showing of Camelot. Your telephone tree board member will be contacting you with details of the ticket cost and will ask if you are interested in dinner afterwards. The deadline for this event will be May 1 to give Virginia time to purchase tickets and make reservations at a restaurant if there is interest. Fifty (50) BWA ladies have already expressed interest in attending Camelot.

The BWA is working on some new fund-raising projects (SaveMart cards and a Hawaiian breakfast, for example) and an outing to Angel Island. More details to come.

Our next meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, May 4.

Hello and welcome to the month of May! It is hard to believe how fast the year is flying by.

For the last few months, Reverend Peter and I have been attending meetings at the Kim Quang Temple with other Buddhist traditions. We are representing the Sacramento Betsuin in planning an upcoming Vesak Day (Buddha Day Celebration). Our dear friend, Bhante Seelawimala from the American Buddhist Seminary, and the Venerable Thich Thien Duyen from the Kim Quang Temple on Alta Arden Way are planning this special celebration and they have invited many of the surrounding Buddhist communities to participate.

In the Theravada tradition, this year marks the 2600th anniversary in celebration of the Buddha's birth, enlightenment and passing away (they celebrate them all together). On Saturday, May 28, at 7 p.m., we are planning to begin the event with a Candlelight Prayer for Peace at the Kim Quang Temple. On Sunday, May 29, from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m., there will be various events, such as introduction to meditation, traditional chanting and sharing of Dharma with local teachers from various traditions. Our own Reverend Peter will be speaking at 3:30 p.m. with our friend Bhante Seelawimala.

This is a wonderful opportunity to unite and celebrate our shared Dharma heritage with other temples in our local Buddhist communities. This event will also provide an opportunity for the general public to be introduced to and to explore the various Buddhist traditions.

I remember our meeting in February was very interesting. It ended at 8 p.m. and the Venerable Thich Thien Duyen and members of the Kim Quang Sangha had a service in their Buddha Hall celebrating the Lunar New Year. Reverend Peter and I decided to attend their service. When we walked into the Buddha Hall, we saw a huge Buddha sitting in the room. It was beautiful. There were no pews... no piano or organ... The spacious room was comfortably filled with people sitting on the floor. There were candles and beautiful flowers on the altar and we heard the familiar sound of chanting and the hitting of the gong and mokugyo.

We saw many monks, nuns and sangha members chanting. We were given a zafu (pillow) to help us sit more comfortably on the floor. As we listened to the chanting in Vietnamese, it sounded both familiar yet foreign; and we felt a calming sense of comfort. At first we tried to chant along, but after a while just closed our books, sat quietly and experienced the moment. We couldn't help but be amazed to see monks in their robes, joined in attendance by young children and older folks. One of the committee members sat next to us. I watched her sitting with her eyes closed. Her hands were in gassho as she chanted from memory. I couldn't help but feel warm inside. Although our traditions may be different, there was a sense of oneness in the room.

Reverend Peter and I left that evening with a deepened appreciation... and a realization that although our cultural traditions may differ, there remains a sense of oneness, a sense that we are all just fellow travelers on the great Dharma Path. We could not help but admire the beautiful Dharma tradition being maintained at the Kim Quang Temple.

The Sacramento Betsuin will have a table at the upcoming Vesak Day. Please come and support us at this joint Vesak Day Celebration on May 29 at the Kim Quang Temple, 3119 Alta Arden Expressway, Sacramento.

Until next month....

MAINTENANCE
REPORT:
THANK YOU,
BOB CHAVEZ
GARY TRAGANZA

Fortunately, March was a pretty slow month for repairs around the temple. So, I'm going use this space to say thank you to a man who is long overdue for a pat on the back, our very own ubiquitous Bob Chavez. He not only assists the maintenance department, but all the groups in our sangha.

As for the maintenance crew, Bob is always there to assist with a long ladder, hold heavy shelves while we get in the first few screws, show us the location of the master valve or circuit breaker. He helps us in innumerable ways.

In addition to his regular duties, you'll see Bob trimming the bushes around the temple, cleaning up the indoor courtyard, providing security for the office ladies when there are questionable people around, or helping anyone with a heavy load. And if you see him working on Tuesdays or after 1:30 p.m., he is on his own time. I think a lot of us have heard him say, "When I work on my own time, I'm a volunteer just like you." I think I speak for a lot of people when I say, "Thank you Bob, you are very much appreciated."

KEN FURUKAWA

The 6th Grade Dharma School teachers, teacher aides and students would like to express our gratitude to the many senseis who shared their art, knowledge, experiences and time with us.

- ✓ We have learned how flowers can be beautifully and simply arranged with Lisa Taira.
- ✓ We now know that samurais calmed their spirit with the discipline of the tea ceremony as taught to us by Hiroko Tsuda, Sosei Ono and Ikuko Sakazaki.
- ✓ We honor our common history with Mas Hatano, who shared photos and spoke to us about the World War II internment camp experience.

Thank you. We have learned so much.

Welcome to May! This is a wonderful time of year, and time to again thank the team of Cliff Adams and Ann Amioka for another amazing Hanamatsuri performance. Top Iron Chef Throwdown — what a great concept to introduce Dharma truths to our children and families! As Rinban Bob says so often, this is definitely the best temple in BCA, with Dharma teachers everywhere. Of course they were able to manage a cast of hundreds with the awesome skills of so many people working as director, stage managers, lighting technicians, and of course the Dharma School classes! All the cute kids and great music helped to underscore the joy of the Dharma message. I hope you all (y'all) had fun. I know I did.

If we were able to overcome some technical issues, a DVD-compatible recording of the play may be available soon so that you can relive the memories and message of the play. Keep your eyes and ears open for an announcement. I want to thank Cliff again, along with Gary Matsumoto for making the project possible.

The Central California Dharma School Teachers League is sponsoring the 2011 Federation of Dharma School Teachers Leagues meeting in Fresno at the end of April/beginning of May. The theme is being connected. I hope that the teachers attending the conference learn great things to help teach the Dharma in more meaningful ways. This meeting also provides the warning to all of our teachers that next year's conference is ours! It promises to break new ground again, and be fun in the process.

We are always looking for workshop facilitators and workshop ideas from our temple members. If you want to participate, please contact me. Drop a message for me at the church office!

Wanted: Upper Division Dharma School teachers to help team teach 7th and 8th grade classes! As a team teacher, the requirement will likely be less than half of the Sundays during the term. If you are interested to teach, and learn at the same time, please contact me!

GIRL SCOUTS

For a few fun-filled hours on March 18, our Girl Scouts got to travel "round the world" to explore various countries at the last Troop 569 Thinking Day Ceremony. The five countries represented were: Ghana, Colombia, Hungary, Norway and Panama. Each country had a booth manned by four individual troops, ranging from Daisys to Senior Girl Scouts.

As the girls traveled from "country" to "country" with their passport, they learned about the culture and history of the country, made craft projects, and sampled some of the country's traditional foods. The girls got to sample yummy treats such as smoked salmon, chocolate crepes and Colombian chicken and rice dish.

The troops who represented Colombia (Seniors 2, Cadettes 6, Brownies 3, and Daisy 1) entertained the crowd with their electrifying performance of the "Waka Waka Dance" by Shakira.

A fun time was had by all and the girls learned much about the world and earned a patch. Special thanks to Senior Girl Scouts Taylor Imai and Melanie Ota for taking the lead on the event. And a big thank you to overall coordinators Diane Huey and Jennifer Nitta for yet another awesome event.

Orientation Day for interested new Girl Scouts for Troop 569 is scheduled for Sunday, May 15. Senior Girl Scouts will be available to work and mentor with the new girls. Spread the word!

April was a fun-packed month for Juniors 1. We took advantage of all the snow that accumulated in the month of March and took a trip up to Northstar at Lake Tahoe for some fun in the sun and snow — lots of it! Our troop took a snow shoeing trek through the woods in the morning — "tubing" in the afternoon, followed by skating at the Village and making s'mores by the fire! What fun!

In preparing for bridging to Cadettes, we did an overnighter at Camp Fleming to work on required activities to move up to Cadettes. It was a great team-building event and we got to meet girls from other troops, too!

Daisies 2 would like to thank the congregation for supporting our troop's first cookie site sale. Everyone's kindness and generosity made this a positive and wonderful experience for the girls that they will remember for years to come. THANK YOU!

PACK 50
 GLEN KUMAMOTO

Yeah! It's almost summer! Long days, hot weather and lazy days by the pool! It also means that Pack 50 will be crazy busy as usual!

In April, Pack 50 held its annual Earth Day activity. This eco-friendly event was chaired by Blake Takaha and David Yasuda. As Dave was away furthering his Boy Scout training in first aid, Blake organized the Pack 50 boys in a day of service projects for the boys. The weather was great and the boys had a chance to walk around and check in on some of their past activities. Thanks go out to all the parents who were able to bring out tools; it made the job a lot easier!

Pack 50 also got a chance to sail some boats... at our spectacular Raingutter Regatta! We had an awesome turnout of boys and each one had the opportunity to race their boat down an actual raingutter filled with water. It was awesome to see so many cool designs. I want to thank Dale Firth and his entire committee for doing such a wonderful job. I especially want to thank John and Stephanie Louie for their contribution of all the food. They donated and prepared 200 hot dogs for the boys... plus chips... plus Twinkies... plus cinnamon thingies... plus fresh oranges... plus fresh pineapple... you get the idea....

Scouting is about giving back and I have never seen a group of parents that serve as better examples than our parents do! Thank you again for making Pack 50 the best Pack around!

Pack 50 ROCKS!

Is that May you smell in the air? Or is it something else? May does have a distinctive aroma about it, but I am not quite sure that this is what it is. May is the birds chirping, the flowers blooming, the bird-poop landing on my sleeves, and the pollen going up my nose to make me sneeze. Well, May is May and it tells us all that we are that much closer to the end of another Dharma School year, and also:

- ✓ May is having the Memorial Day holiday.
- ✓ May is ending school before the Memorial Day holiday in some school districts.
- ✓ May is a time to make you keep your attendance above 60 percent for the next season.
- ✓ May is a time to prepare for the Central Cal Cobra basketball tournament on Father's Day weekend.
- ✓ May is a time to remember your Mother on Mother's Day.
- ✓ May is a time to collect all the basketballs from our coaches.
- ✓ May is a time to collect the uniforms from the teams.

So if you are a coach and your team is all done for the year, please get your basketballs back to our equipment coordinator, and if you are a Team Mom, and your team is all done for the year, please collect all the uniforms and return them to Rene Fong, our equipment coordinator.

Enjoy the month of May. Let's wrap up the loose ends of the basketball season and keep in mind that if you are planning to participate in next year's basketball program, the attendance numbers for May are used to determine eligibility for the fall, so keep attending if you want to play.

Also make a notation on your calendar for early in September. Your note should read: Remember to sign up for the bowling league and go toe to toe or pin to pin with Rinban Bob. Yes, that is correct, the SBC Bowling League will be back as must-see TV coming this fall, 2011.

Happy May!
